Spring Weather

We hope you have been able to enjoy a lot of nice spring weather here in Montana. The last couple weeks have brought us regular temps in the 50's and 60's. For March, this has been great. It allowed us to get out and enjoy some great nude recreation here in the state.

We hope that your able to get out and take advantage of the great weather. The higher elevations still have a lot of snow, but the lower trails are opening up and making for some great hiking opportunities.

Remember, while enjoying this great weather to use sun block protection. Its much easier to burn in higher elevations. In fact, I recently received a bit of a sun burn on my bare buns while hiking. It gave me a much needed reminder to purchase sun block. ☺

Take some time to enjoy this great weather, and enjoy Nude Recreation in Montana!

Property Search

We have been looking into many different properties at this time, and are devoted in our search for a new place. While we had hoped Boulder Creek would come to fruition- it just was not meant to be.

Some of ideas we are looking into:

Leasing some acreage of Helena National Forest from the DNRC on a commercial lease. I have been in contact with DNRC, and am continuing to tour some of their suggested parcels for lease. They are well aware of our wanting to open a Nudist Resort, and have been quite accommodating.

Two, we just recently toured a privately owned campground close to the Helena area. This is an older campground that does need some work, as it is no longer in use. But has many great possibilities. I cant say much more on this property, as it is not officially on the market yet.

Three, we looked into the possible purchase of a hot springs here in the state. However, this became a non option after reviewing their books. The place just wasn't showing it could financially support itself in the long term.

Right now, we are seriously looking into option two. This property seems to offer a fair amount of acreage with National Forest on three sides, along with many great buildings. Again, this property will take a fair amount of time to bring it up to our standards of a resort. Fortunately, we have had so many great people offer to volunteer their precious time to help us out once we purchase a property.

We wish we could tell you more, but at this point it is better to keep it under wraps until we know more. Keep your fingers crossed and good thoughts coming our way. ☺ We appreciate your caring and support of Nude Recreation in Montana. ☺
